

We are searching for you!

Our Micafluid Team in Portugal (Palmela) is growing, and we search a Mechanical Technician.

Your general responsibilities...

- Performs tasks related to the projects under direction of Project Engineer, or other responsible staff members.
- Prepares reports, specifications, plans, construction schedules, cost estimates and permits for projects, under the direction of Project Engineer or other responsible staff members.
- Verification of applied and required norms.

Your specific responsibilities...

- Verification of components, sub-assemblies, and material against approved BOM
- Control of sub-assembled components and final mechanical construction
- Vacuum leak rate, coating and finishing test of the final mechanical assembly
- Verification of the functionality and configuration of each OEM component
- Configuration of Test Routine
- Specific automation test
- Mechanical Consumption & Rating Test
- Cross check of all purchased accessories and optional extras
- Reflect all the changes occurring during the project and manufacturing cycle
- Complete and verify all procedures required to prepare the project for dispatch, shipment and deliver to the customer

Your Profile...

- Minimum of bachelor's degree technician from an accredited college or university.
- User CAD: advanced.
- Experience in a similar mechanical role recommended
- Experience working as part of a team
- Excellent attention to detail and problem-solving skills.
- English Level B2 (mandatory)

Do you know Micafluid? We invite you to visit our webpage: www.micafluid.pt

If you want to face a new challenge, please contact us on: veronica.aliaga@micafluid.ch